After a successful exhibition at last years' LinuxTag 2007, the Interchange Development Group is happy to announce their presence at LinuxTag 2008 (<http://www.linuxtag.org/2008/en/>). LinuxTag, Europe's leading exhibition on Linux and Open Source, is expected to attract thousands of visitors ranging from IT managers, developers, system administrators and users of new and existing Open Source solutions.

The international event (conference languages are English and German) takes place from May 28 - 31, 2008 at Berlin's Messezentrum unter dem Funkturm. Interchange is located in hall 7.2a, booth 103.

Interchange developers from around the globe will gather to:

Offer presentations

Give free advice to users

Make general conversation about Interchange

Visitors to our booth will get a unique opportunity to:

Meet with the experts

Find out more about Interchange

Join the workshop to see what are Interchange's plans for the future

Seize a special gift only for Interchange's users

Please let us know in advance if you plan to show up at LinuxTag, as we can arrange free tickets and an individual appointment with you.
